Villiers le Mahieu

Since it was built in 1642 on the remains of 13th Century Castle, the Château of Villiers-le-Mahieu looks like a Middle-Age fortress. It is only in the 17th century that we have evidence of the owner of the lands of Villiers-le-Mahieu being one Claude de BULLION, Garde des Sceaux then Surintendant des Finances in the reign of Louis the XIIIth. Of his three sons it was Claude, Marquis of ATTILLY who inherited Villiers-le-Mahieu and built the château in 1642.

In 1965, Count Charles of ROHAN-CHABOT undertook extensive restoration works that lasted until 1970 and resulted in the Château that we see today. The well-known artist, Bernard BUFFET, lived in the magnificently restored château from 1971 to 1979. Mr Chaufour made it a hotel that he managed until 2018. Now Les Hotels (très) Particuliers are pleased to maintain this beautiful castle.

More than ever, accompanied with a beautiful team, Sandrine & Rudy are very pleased to have you here today.
